Jim Taylor, when writing Everyday Psalms, asked and answered the question:
“Why do we need downtown churches?”

Because people still come there to seek sanctuary.”

We are more midtown than downtown, but an urban church to which people come seeking sanctuary in the city. Taylor’s Psalm 63:1-8 speaks to our hearts:

Holy Presence

Endless crowds of people crush me.
They jostle my mind; they crack my concentration.
I feel like no more than a means to an end, a cog in the machinery.
I long for the gentle touch of loving fingers,
the intimate whisper of acceptance.
So I come looking for you, Lord, in your holy places.
In this dimmed light, in this hushed silence,
I sense your presence.
I wish I could feel you as near me in the rabid frenzy of life in the city core.
I want to reach out and touch you
In the marketplace as well as the chancel.
Then I will not feel alone;
You will be part of every thought and every breath.
I will know you at my desk and in my den,
in my bed and in my bathtub.
Nothing will come between us.
And I will hold you close in the nighttime of my fears.

- James Taylor, Everyday Psalms,
(British Columbia: Woodlake Books) 2005. P. 77

CROSSPATHS

This past week we have had two gatherings of our wonderful small group leaders as they prepare to host and lead five small group conversations between October 7 and 12. I have been so deeply moved by the faith and the love for Christ's Church in these leaders. I have already heard their deep commitment to ministry in this community; a passion for the ministry of this congregation.

As we move closer to this time when our whole congregation is invited to gather in homes to share the vision that is in us and to talk about our ideas for moving forward in ministry in the face of financial challenges, I ask you to do three things:

- 1) PRAY for each other – for the daily concerns of family and friends, health, work and school, for the celebrations, the losses, and the new opportunities in each of our lives. It is in the midst of all of this, that we are the Church with and for each other and the world.
- 2) Be present to participate in one of our small group conversations! (They are listed below)
- 3) PRAY for the movement of God's Spirit in each of the small groups and then in the congregation as we sharpen our vision, as we celebrate our many gifts for ministry, and as we together discern the ways to move forward!

Blessings, Jacque

Facing the challenges together – Sharing our dreams and ideas ...

Between October 7th and 12th, we are having 5 (FIVE!) gatherings at different times and places so that EVERYONE can take part in conversation about our vision for the Compton Heights Christian Church and our ideas! ### Sympathy

We celebrate the life and grieve the family's loss in the death of Bertha "Babe" Auer, mother of Joan James.

Our love and sympathy continue to surround Joan, Dennis and their family in their loss. The Memorial Service was held at the United Methodist Church of Green Trails. Pastor Foster participated in the service and many our congregation were present. May God's peace fill Joan and her family as they continue to care for each other and to celebrate their mother's life and faith!

We celebrate the life and grief our community's loss in the death of Bob Fletcher, a dear neighborhood friend, who died to this life on September 23. Bob has been a part of this neighborhood, connecting us with other neighbors, sharing in "Happy Friday", Pet Blessings, care for those in the Saum Apartments and those in this congregation. We expect to see Bob and his dog King coming around the corner at any moment. A Memorial Service was held at the Saum Building on Monday, September 30. Pastor Foster participated in the service along with Fr. John Vien from St. Pius. A wonderful group of CHCC Happy Friday/Choir folk sang in the service. Thanks be to God for the gift of Bob's life shared in this community.

WELCOME to COMPTON HEIGHTS CC!

First Christian Church, Sedalia

200 S. Limit Ave., Sedalia, Missouri 65301

This one-day Assembly is being held in what is usually our 'off-year' as we continue the work of moving into a new way of doing regional ministry. This assembly will include time for each of our four Areas to do our Area business as well.

Fall is here and Choir has begun! Is music your passion? Each Sunday we will meet at 9:00 AM to warm-up and prepare for the day's music. Then after worship and community time, our weekly Choir practice will be from 12:30 to 1:30. This makes it possible for you to participate in the choir without needing to come back on a week night to practice! The choir is a wonderful group and is vital to the worship life of the congregation! Please come with your gifts, whether vocal or instrumental!!

Boundary Training/Safe Church Training - Wednesday, Oct 23, 7:00pm

We have a Safe Sanctuary Policy for the purpose of creating safe, secure space for children, youth, adults – everyone participating in the life of Compton Heights Christian Church. Just as our Pastors are required by the Region to have regular Boundary Training classes, so our congregational leaders – in fact any of the congregation – are encouraged to take Boundary Training. Our teachers, childcare-givers, and “Children, Worship & Wonder” leaders and helpers are all required to have Boundary Training. No one (even parents) who do not have Boundary Training are allowed to stay in the nursery with children other than their own.

On Wednesday, October 23 at 7:00 pm we will offer Boundary/Safe Church Training for those who have not taken it in the last 5 years and for anyone who would just like a refresher. (Everyone must have it at least every 5 years). The class will be taught by Kathy Mead.

“Celebrating Our Ministry Now and Future” - Dinner - Sunday, Oct. 27

Following our early October Small Group Gatherings, we look forward to bringing together our Dreams, Visions, Ideas, Energy and Resources for the future! In worship and at this celebration dinner on October 27, we will celebrate our ministry, and share the ideas that have emerged from our small groups. We hope you will join in a small group gathering (October 7 – 12) AND then share in this celebration to hear what is emerging from these conversations!

What a great event since October is the month in which we celebrate Ministry throughout the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

Bring a dish to share and come join in this potluck dinner and program.

New Round of Infant Massage Class Sessions to take place in November!

The first offering of Infant Massage Education classes (this past month) was successful and such a gift for the families involved! Therefore, Gerry Rauch and Maureen McCuen, Infant Massage Educators, will teach another Infant Massage class at Compton Height CC in November. This will be a day-time class at 9:00 – 10:30 am on Friday mornings, November 1, 8, 15, and 22. We are grateful to be one of three sites in the St. Louis metro area for these wonderful classes. If you know parents who may be interested in this or future classes please share this information.

Parents are taught to massage their babies while instructors demonstrate on dolls. Infant massage offers a number of benefits including: improved sleep, relief of muscular pain, stimulating brain development, reduced stress for both infant and caregiver, helps gas, colic, and digestion issues, learning the art of being present to your baby, learning to read your baby’s cues, gaining confidence in parenting skills, and meeting other parents.

Classes cost $75 per 5 week session. Gift certificates are available.

To Register: Call 314 - 919-6176 or go to www.babytimeSTL.com

PLEASE SHARE THIS INFORMATION WITH THOSE IN YOUR CIRCLE OF FRIENDS, CO-WORKERS, NEIGHBORS AND FAMILY. IT IS A VITAL PART OF OUR MISSION IN THE COMMUNITY TO NURTURE HEALTHY PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIPS.

Update on King's Matriculation School building

King's Matriculation School is the school serving the children of Family Village Farm in south India where Dhanush, Girisha, and Monisha attend school. It is the school where our Compton Heights CC group has traveled with our Global Ministries People to People Pilgrimage. There we have spend precious time with children and staff, and have led Health Screenings on our 2009 and 2011 trips (and plan to return in 2014)!

At the present time, the nursery and lower classes are on the campus of Family Village Farm and the senior classes are on the separate campus of the King's Matriculation School. However, when the application for renewal of their school license was presented in August 2012, the new Government rules stated the school cannot operate from two premises. In order to comply, extra classrooms would need to be built at the senior school site in order to accommodate the junior school classes. In addition, there would be new standards needed in the 11th and 12th classes, also located at the King's Matriculation School.

Even though this new construction had not been in their budget, King's Matriculation School started on the construction of the new building by drawing funds from their designated funds and by taking out a large loan from the bank. If the construction had not begun promptly, 58 students would not have been able to take their Board exams.

The new wing on the main campus of King's Matriculation School will soon be completed. This will allow the junior school, currently on the Family Village Farm premises, to move alongside the Secondary and Higher secondary school classrooms at King's Matriculation School. The benefits of having the new building on the same site as the secondary and higher secondary schools are many. Administration, leadership, and oversight should be easier and will help to further the school's reputation and standing. It will also allow staff members to share professional practices and develop better teaching skills and give the older students a chance to take on greater leadership roles within the school.

As King's Matriculation School's attendance increases, particularly the female student population, a second urgent need arose. King's School finds itself needing additional restrooms for their female students in order to comply with government guidelines. The school needs one commode for every 20 female students. Last school year, there were 90 female students and this number has increased as of June 2012.

Five additional restroom facilities are needed at an estimated cost of $6,300. Global Ministries has received several designated gifts for this need and hopes to reach the goal. Gifts for this specific purpose may be designated for the King's Matriculation School Restroom Project (India).

We continue to pass "the big India Jar" on Sundays for the support of Dhanush and Girisha, the boys we sponsor at King's Matriculation School. We will write letters to them Sunday, November 3!
